Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Muirhead in view of Humphreys (US 6,851,126). Muirhead discloses an interlaced open matrix/netting of closed loop members (20) and a plurality of camouflage colored elements (40, 42, 46) being three dimensional simulates the natural environment and each of the elements is coupled to one of the closed loop members, col. 5, lines 13-28 and as shown in figure 4C. Further, the interlaced matrix is coupled to an outer surface of a garment as shown in figure 4A. However, Muirhead does not show the plurality of camouflage elements being defined by dimensioned first and second simulation segments having aligned, opposed lobes disposed on opposite sides of a central segment thereof.

Humphreys discloses an interlaced open matrix/netting of closed loop members and a plurality of first and second camouflage elements (44) being three dimensional simulates the natural environment and each of the elements is coupled to one of the closed loop members, col. 8, line 66 – col. 9, line 7. Further, the plurality of camouflage elements are each defined by dimensioned first and second simulation segments having aligned, opposed lobes disposed on opposite sides of a central segment thereof as shown in figure 4.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the garment matrix of Muirhead with the plurality of first and second camouflage elements with each defined by dimensioned first and second simulation segments having aligned, opposed lobes disposed on opposite sides of a central segment thereof as taught by Humphreys as an alternative but equivalent means of allowing the wearer of the device to blend with the natural surroundings or as required for a particular application thereof.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure.
